Beverly Hills Extends Nowruz Greetings

Beverly Hills, CA – Nowruz is the first day of spring and the beginning of the Persian New Year. The holiday which means a 'new day' in Farsi, also signifies a renewal of hope and thoughtful reflection.

"We are happy to celebrate Beverly Hills' cultural diversity," stated Mayor Barry Brucker. The City's Human Relations Commission also commemorated Nowruz and wished the community Eid-ehShoma Mobarak!

The Human Relations Commission is tasked towards encouraging activities and programs that promote positive relations in the community. For more information, please contact the Community Services Department at 310-285-2535.
